Trippers and askers surround me,
 People I meet, the effect upon me of my early life or the ward and the city
 I live in, or the nation,
 The latest dates, discoveries, inventions, societies, authors old and new,
 My dinner, dress, associates, looks, compliments, dues,
 The real or fancied indifference of some man or woman I love,
 The sickness of one of my folks, of myself, or illdoing, or loss, or lack of money, or depression or exaltation, Battles, the horrors or fractidal war, the fever of doubtful news, the fitful events;
 These come to me day and night, and go from me again,
 But they are not me myself.

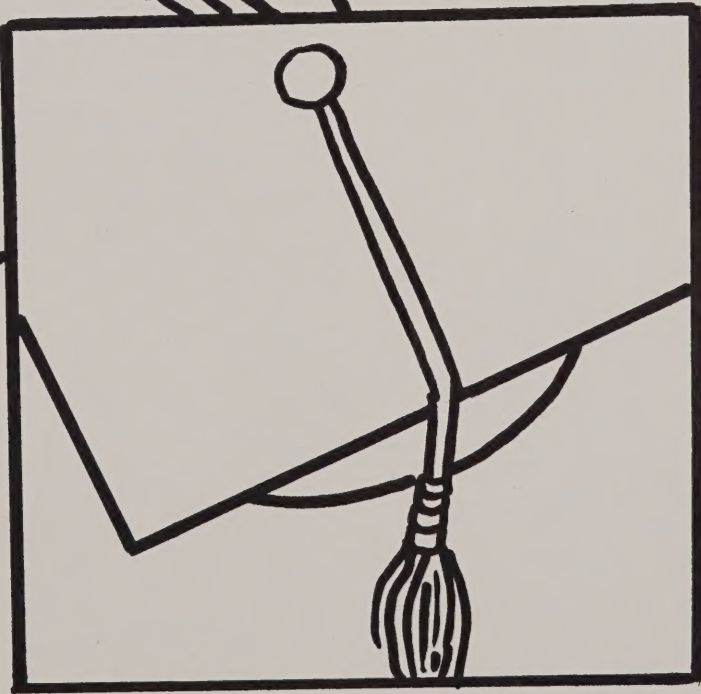

Apart from the pulling and hauling stands
 what I am,
 Stands amused, complacent, compassionating,
 idle, unitary,
 Looks down, is erect, or bends an arm on an impalpable rest,
 Looking with side-curved head curious what will come next,
 Both in and out of the game and watching and wondering at it.

SONG OF MYSELF

Backward I see in my own days where I sweated through fog with linguist and contenders;
 I have no mockings or arguments, I witness and wait . . .
 The past and present wilt — I have filled them,
 emptied them,
 And proceed to fill my next fold of the future . . .
 Failing to fetch me at first, keep encouraged,
 Missing me one place, search another,
 I stop somewhere waiting for you.

Freshman year was a year of wonder for most of our classmates. Some of us entered a totally new experience, others encountered the familiar faces of older brothers or sisters and even parents. The terms "squid", "pabulum puke" and the nicer "froshman" became familiar vocabulary as we learned we were the inferior beings of the school. Mall and movie nights were prevalent and many dances also took up our time. The homework and classwork were much different but we had all adjusted by the end of the year. We learned not to ask upperclassmen for directions, memorized the new attendance policy, and also created bigger and better homework excuses. All in all it was a growing year.

Cocky and Confident, we entered sophomore year with enthusiasm. No longer were we Squids, we were big sophomores. We started to go to parties and leave Cape Cod. Our social lives picked up now we weren't considered lowly. Now we began to come together in class, and many made new friends because of different classes. By now we were accustomed to high school life. No longer was the Yellow D Crusier good enough for our rides; we bummed them off willing upperclassmen, or hid when we had to ride. Receiving our licenses was one of our main concerns -- all we had to do was to get through this year -- and we would be upperclassmen, driving our sophomore friends around -- and we couldn't wait for that!

Junior year was one of preparation. Faced with budget cuts, students and teachers out in favor of education funds. Their needs were met when proposition 2 1/2 was finally overridden for 1.7 million dollars. This was also the year for the junior prom. People planned ahead, looked for dates and clothing in the early months of 1990. "The Prom" was on everyone's mind. This year was the when most of us were learning to drive, getting our licenses and perhaps a car. We were then asked the question, "What do you want to do with your life"? College conferences began. S.A.T.'s and Achievements rolled around. It was decision-making time. Most of us, however, put this off-after all, we were "only juniors".

Our senior year 1990-1991 was a year of history, both personal and national. On a personal level, it was a time of applications, whether job or college, a time of decision making. It was also a time of partying and having a good time. Between the football, hockey, and basketball games, we filled our weekends with parties, movies, and late night BK trips.

On a national level, the Persian Gulf crisis, which started on August 2, 1990, erupted into a war on January 16, 1991 as we witnessed the first workings of the United Nations as a body. The war hit close to home as former graduates and family members headed off to the Gulf. Classmates worried about the possibility of the return of the draft, as many were 18; meanwhile many community members held a peace rally on the town green. Our class dedicated this year to the troops in the Persian Gulf.

This year has been interesting, and as we depart into the world we will always reflect on the events of these past years.

Harold Cornforth

I remember when I was a freshman, my sister was planning a trip to Florida and I heard her mention my dean's name. I asked her what Mr. Cornforth had to do with her trip and she said, "Mr. Cornforth is my travel agent!" I had never known my dean was a travel agent. How did he find the time? Didn't my classmates bog him down with tons of work?

When I began my sophomore year, I asked my friend who taught her computer programming class. She said, "Mr. Cornforth." What? My dean is a travel agent and a teacher? Wow! How does he handle discipline, advise our class officers and recognize every student?

Mr. Cornforth sets high standards for his students. He always makes a point to say hi to everyone, and when term grades are out, he congratulates everyone who has achieved high honors or honors. To me, that means he cares about us and respects us. Mr. Cornforth makes an effort to help every student in need: not because he has to, but because he wants to.

Mr. Cornforth came to Barnstable in the 70's from Dennis-Yarmouth where he taught math and coached football. Asked about Mr. Cornforth, Mr. Graves told me, "Since he became a dean at BHS, his work has been positive and consistent; he is a loyal administrator." Mr. Graves is saddened that Mr. Cornforth is leaving, but he is also happy for him. "His enthusiasm toward his work is as evident as it was when he became a dean in the early 70's. He's done a lot for BHS!"

"Mr. Cornforth is a perfect boss! He keeps everything in order. He's fair and a complete gentleman to work with," says Mrs. Smith, his longtime secretary and friend.

Class president John Kenney, when asked how he felt Mr. Cornforth has helped his class, replied, "He's not only helped us conduct student government effectively, but he has also made each of the officers mature tremendously throughout our four years."

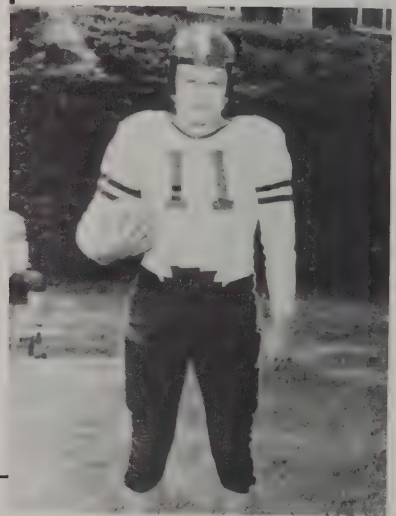

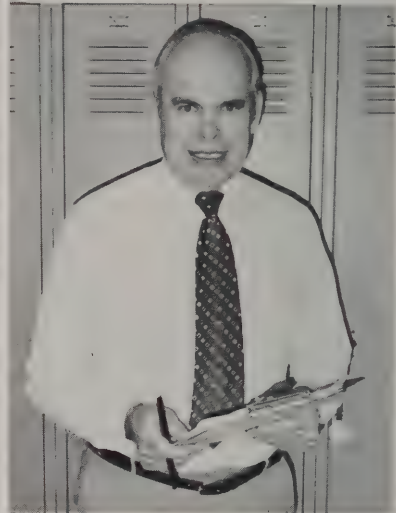

I asked my other fellow officers what they had learned from their dean. Vice president Scott Mullin said, "Responsibility that I couldn't have learned from anyone else at BHS!"

Class secretary Amanda Willis added, "I learned confidence in myself. He's taught me to do the best I can and given me a will to succeed!"

As treasurer of the Class of '91 for three years, I have had a unique chance to know my dean. Not only do I agree with all of the comments the others have made, I feel Mr. Cornforth is a role model every student should follow.

BHS will miss you, Mr. Cornforth!

Sincerely,
Jamie Shapiro

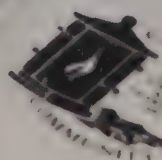

Clockwise from top left: A three-letter man at New Bedford High, Mr. Cornforth won the award for outstanding athlete, scholar and leader; after four years of Bates football, he graduated with honors; Lieutenant Cornforth won a Bronze Star in Korea; he taught at Keith Jr. High in New Bedford before moving here; the clipboard King himself.

Where There Is Love

Where there is love

There is no war

No super stars

No funny stars

Where there is love

It's only right

To walk in light

Through the darkest night

Where there is love

There is no fear

Where there is love

Love, it takes you anywhere

Where there is love, love, love

I'll be there

I HAVE A PLACE IN HEAVEN

Please don't sing
sad songs for me
Forget your grief and for
For I am in a perfect place
Away from pain and tears
I'm far away from hunger,
And hurt and want and pride
I have a place in heaven..
With the Master at my side
My life on earth
was very good,
As earthly lives can go,
But Paradise is so much more
Than anyone can know
My heart is filled with happiness
And sweet rejoicing, too
To walk with God
is perfect peace
A joy forever new

IMMORTALITY

Do not stand by my grave and weep...
I am not there.
I do not sleep.

I am a thousand winds that blow
I am a diamond glint on snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain
I am the gentle autumn rain.

When you awake in the morning hush.
I am the swift upflying rush of quiet birds in circling flight
I am the soft star shine at night

Do not stand by my grave and cry..
I am not there
I did not die.
I live with the Risen Lord

J ust the way you are
A lways on my mind
S omething so strong
O nly the good die young

He says I suffer from delusion, but I'm so confident I'm sane.

The night languishes restlessly until the morning dew. As for me, I would like to be at Shadowland in the garden of TUATHA DE DANANN. Where the trees are small but their fruits hold the flavor of knowledge Soon fall asleep and dream of my Percival and my long gone days in Camelot. Emerald Island shall be my paradise and the Dark Ages my time. For the legends are my bedtime stories, and when Hades claims me I shall meet my companions in SHADOWLAND.

BARNSTABLE HIGH SCHOOL

"A few light kisses, a few embraces, reaching around of the arms . . . The delight alone or in the rush of the streets, or along the fields and hillsides . . ."

Senior Superlatives

This year's senior superlatives took many days of haggling by the yearbook staff, but we finally came up with imaginative titles for the senior class to vote on. In the fall, we passed out superlative sheets to all seniors and gave them a couple of days to make their decisions. After tallying the votes, we announced the winners over the loudspeaker; clearly, they represent a variety of people, something we were hoping for.

Congratulations, winners!

Most Likely to Succeed — Carrie Klotz and Alex Schaefer

Best Eyes — Sam Barrett and Sue White

Most Stressed — Matt Kozma and Olivia Fraser

The swinging singles of BHS: Help, my tongue is stuck; Another late night, Kellie?; Eli, one more minute and this heater will become my bed; Josh, if I pay you enough will you stay here with me all day?

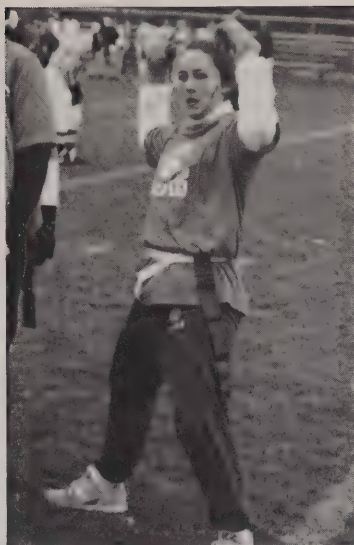

Snap it quick, I gotta hit the men's room; Class clown is acting up; Jen Denesha, are you watching?; Christine and Elyn know all the real happenin' places.

Clockwise from Top L: Show those biceps, Cassiel Vanessa tries to restore order at band practice; "Maybe if I do this long enough, Patrick Swayze will show up!"; It's crew — the non-school sport!; "Don't take my picture — I'm looking for current events!"; Truckload of seniors; Ian McBride reacts from a long-armed pinch from Melissa Lang.

Homecoming 1990 was another victory for B.H.S. The game was one of the many wins which made up B.H.S. football's successful season. This year's homecoming was again semiformal and everyone was in festive spirits. The homecoming queens were — senior Tracy Jenkins, Junior Katie Sullivan, sophomore Molly Lyons, and Freshman Jana Alperen. The king was senior Jeff Cazeault. This year's voting turned up new faces and the winners truly showed the spirit of Barnstable high school.

Spirit Week

Every year, a week before Thanksgiving, Student Council sponsors "Spirit Week" to pep up the students for the Thanksgiving Day game against Falmouth. The exciting week consists of athletic competition between teachers and students, a scavenger hunt for each homeroom and a hall decorating contest in which the students of each class eagerly prepare their hallways with streamers and decorations, hoping to have the best looking hall. The pep rally ends the week, psyching up everyone for the Falmouth game; decorating floats and riding down Main Street, each class competing with own float. The senior class won the best float, with their theme "Peace in the Middle East." It was decorated red, white, and blue streamers and signs reading "No war." The week was its usual success, with the juniors winning the overall award for Spirit Week 1990.

Powder Puff

For sixteen years we have been playing the traditional Powder Puff game, a chance for girls to prove themselves in the sport of football. This year the class of 1991 notched another victory, completing a rare sweep of the series. Because of the sportsmanlike conduct displayed on the field this year, the Powder Puff rivalry will continue. Already the names of the participants from the class of 1991 have slipped into the mists of legend. Was it Jill Jenkins, Amanda Willius or L'il Sarah Ellis who scored the winning touchdown? Was it Sarah Bishopric or Stacy McDonald who threw the most bone-crushing block??

One name that will forever remain emblazoned in his classmates' minds is that of Andy Campbell, who showed his sense of humor and flair for fashion as the girls' number one cheerleader.

This year's Thanksgiving game proved the superiority of B.H.S. Football. With the help of Seniors Jamie Chase, Ryan O'Neil, Josh Conroy, and John Moreshead, B.H.S. tromped Falmouth in the 102nd game of the rivalry to make for a perfect Turkey Day. Many attended this game; those who didn't listened intently as they sat through dinner. The trophy remained in Barnstable, the town won the bet, and the game was a perfect ending for Spirit Week!

Tara Hyannis

The '90 Junior Prom Court: Tanya Paris, Amy Wong, Queen Jill Jenkins, Leah Grohe and Nancy Perry along with their dates Alex Cook, Mark Yoo, Peter Derosier, Luke Murphy and Jason Dwyer.

Last year's Junior Prom was held at the Tara Hyannis Hotel from 6:30 pm until midnight. Many students gathered together at each other's houses before the prom to take pictures of this memorable evening. Before the actual dancing began, couples arrived in anything from stretch limos to red Cadillacs to parents' borrowed cars. Couples also took individual pictures at the prom in front of a decorative setting. The evening included a sit-down dinner, plenty of dancing, and a grand march to select the queen and her court. The prom theme was "And When She Danced" and dates danced to this melody after the grand march. Afterwards, groups of friends traveled to selected houses and partied together until dawn.

The seniors

The B.H.S. marching band plans to continue its "eyes with pride" spirit. After winning many awards for performing excellence, including eight trophies at last spring's "Fiesta-val" competition in Williamsburg, Virginia, the team hosted the fourth annual B.H.S. Invitational Show in November. Under the senior leadership of Vanessa Santiago, President Scott Hansen, vice president Jocelyn Fish, and squad leader Sara Bechtold, the band entertains at home football games, participates in local parades, and competes on the state level with bands of comparable size.

Under the direction of Mr. Shrum and Mr. Boger, the Ski Club experienced yet another exhilarating season of activity. Made up of a group of avid skiers, B.H.S.' ski club hit many of the slopes of New England. Mountains such as Waterville Valley (New Hampshire) and Stowe (Vermont) are frequent club destinations. In the past, the ski club has traveled to Utah, and plans could be in the making for "Western" skiing next year.

Kaleidoscope

Although Kaleidoscope, Barnstable High School's Literary and Art Magazine, is published annually, the staff works hard all year long. Advised by Mr. Wollak and Mrs. Regan, they collect writing and art submissions from students and must then complete the difficult task of choosing those few that will be published in the magazine. You can see, however, by reading Kaleidoscope, that all of this hard work is worth it.

The National Honor Society, advised by Mrs. Thibault, is an organization dedicated to school service through peer tutoring, a community project for charity, and raising money for the NHS scholarship. Members earn their places through academic excellence, school and community activities, leadership, and character. Students are nominated based on academic performance and voted on by the faculty in junior year. Ms. Thibault comments, "Our country is at a crossroads and these fine students have an obligation to achieve high academics and serve others. I wish them all success in these difficult times with these difficult tasks."

The Speech and Debate Team is one of the oldest and most successful activities at BHS. Team members travel throughout New England to perform in several categories, including Oral Interpretation of Literature, Original Oratory, Current Events, and Broadcasting. Mrs. Wollak, returning as coach after a four year hiatus, teaches students to speak with confidence on many different topics. As perennial state and national competitors, the team hopes to continue this tradition and place first in the state finals and qualify for the Grand National Tournament in New York City. Both the National and Catholic Forensic Leagues have given the BHS Speech Team national recognition for its excellence in forensic competition.

Walking down the 700 wing in the morning, one will find himself surrounded by beautiful music as the string players, directed by Gerri Lajoie, practice their pieces. The ensemble plays in several Barnstable High School concerts a year. In addition to performing in these concerts, string players also have a chance to try out for All-Cape, Southeast, and All-State concerts. Along with the ensemble, there is also an orchestra, combining band and string players, which meets once a week. The ensemble and orchestra are greatly appreciated by the Barnstable High School community for brining the joy of music to our school.

A leadership development and community and school service organization, the Key Club is affiliated with the Kiwanis International. Members acquire skills in running meetings and fundraising and learn how "to make positive impacts on the world," according to club advisor Mr. Slayter.

This year's seniors include President Stacy Hadfield, April Kallenberg, Lindy Bolton, Meghan Kilroy, Kathrin Rockness, Tom Woodman and Lisa lafrate.

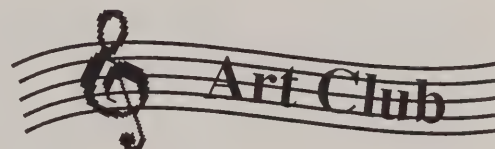

Among the club's goals are assisting with the Halloween Parade and the Salvation Army food drive, helping with the BYAC ALTERNATIVES center and raising funds for both a pediatric trauma unit and scholarships.

Leo Club

The Leo Club is a community service organization committed to serving identified needs in Barnstable. Under the leadership of president Alyse Demary and advisor Mr. Bill Schlegel, the club hopes to provide for the needs of handicapped citizens in the town in particular. The Leo Club also hopes to offer scholarship support to BHS students and improve communication between clubs at the high school.

The Art Club, under advisor Mr. Carl Lopes, unites visually creative students in group projects that provide a variety of experiences. Seniors Becky Hutchinson and Julie Hokans along with other club members displayed their artwork in the Student Art Exhibition, a year-long rotating exhibit of 30 works at the new Centerville fire station. In addition, club members exhibit their work at the annual show in the Cape Cod Mall and throughout the school. The club hopes to achieve "more public exposure of B.H.S. artwork and give students an awareness of the art community around them," said Mr. Lopes.

To write, to edit, and to publish are the three fundamentals of INSIGHT, the school's newspaper. Every six weeks INSIGHT advisor Mr. Carlon gathers his staff members "to continue a long tradition of accuracy and objective reporting."

After a year away from teaching, Carlon returned from New Hampshire to resume advising the 1990-1991 INSIGHT. The newspaper has four editors-in-chief: Carrie Klotz, Amy Wong, Brian O'Neill, and Kathleen Lees, who oversee the staff. Carlon's words to live by: "Loose lips sink ships." He also gives credit to tireless staff shutterbug Nanker Phelge for making INSIGHT so popular and informative.

Under the direction of Rick Porteus, director of Branstable Rowing Club and Boys' coach, this year's team has greatly improved. Though faulty equipment hurt them in early spring, the boys sprang back. The task of training new rowers faced them next, but again they rose to the challenge. This year should prove even better, with returning captains Eric Riedell and Matt Crowley, along with Justin Deforest, Dylan Swetish, and many others. With a program whose total number now reaches seventy, the Barnstable Rowing Club has proved itself as an alternate sport for B.H.S. students.

The girls crew team has evolved over the years to become a competitive force in the New England Interscholastic Rowing Association. Rowing against schools such as Tabor, Phillips Exeter, Northfield-Mount Hermon, and Brookline, the girls have learned many different racing techniques and have proven themselves in races against these well established programs. Last year's First boat's victory over Tabor was a major accomplishment for the girls. Though lack of funds and commitment have plagued the team in past years, this year proves to be a winner, with returning rowers Allison Schiffman, a junior national competitor, Alyse and Kristian Demary, and many other veterans. Led by coach Todd Kenally — the girls will truly be a force to be reckoned with.

The golf team, in its first year competing in the fall, finished third in the Old Colony League with a 5-3 league record, while posting a 7-10 record overall. Seniors Sam Barrett, Ian Quinn, and Nick Stefos led the team, with Barrett receiving the Old Colony League's sportsmanship award. A solid group of underclassmen should make next year's team a competitive one.

The 1990-1991 Barnstable Hockey team rose to their pinnacle this season with their 4-2 win over Brookline High School on March 15, 1991. This game was the best game for many of the players; the ice of Boston Garden drove them into action as they rolled over the Brookline team. Freshman goalie Mark Northup held the team strong with his outstanding goal tending. Senior trio Ben Smith, Ryan O'Neil and Luke Murphy were the strength of the front line — along with freshman Eric Nickalaus who turned in an outstanding performance. All in all, the players proved to those big city teams that they were more than a bunch of "cranberry pickers."

On March 21, 1991, B.H.S. held a celebration-award ceremony for the hockey team during 11th period. It was the first time in 4 years we had the whole school together as we filled the football stands to hear the celebratory speeches by coaches, team members, and school administration. Athletic Director Steve Goviea awarded the state championship plaque to Coach Melchiono,. Give those boys a "B"!

In just its second season, the girls soccer team posted a 5-12-1 record, an improvement over last season's 3-13-2 mark. Highlighting the season was a 1-1 tie with OCL powerhouse Falmouth. "All the players on our team found out something about themselves that night and what it takes to play an entire game of soccer," said Coach Roy Cowing.

The team featured eight seniors, led by co-captains Wendy LeJava and Amanda Willius. Cowing described right wing LeJava as "always giving a hundred per cent even though a knee injury hampered her performance." Of Willius, a halfback, Cowing said, "She possesses a tremendous work ethic and is a tough competitor."

Other seniors included halfback Christine O'Leary, who "never stopped running and always showed great sportsmanship" as well as fullback Melissa Scanlon, whom Cowing called "one of the most aggressive players on our team." Fullback Nancy DuMont, a "steady player," took most of the team's goal kicks and halfback Liz Scott also saw some playing time, despite being plagued by a leg injury. Striker Julie Brown, a "good shooter," scored eight goals and added seven assists. Two-year goalie Jill Spinney "kept us in many games," most notably in her finest performance, the Falmouth tie, says Cowing. Junior Mo Baldasaro was selected to the OCL All-Star team.

"It was a pleasure to coach this year's senior girls. The sportsmanship, work ethic, and determination were outstanding," concluded Coach Cowing.

Last fall, the 1990 Red Raider soccer team switched from the familiar SMC II to the newly formed Old Colony League. With these changes came new, tougher opponents, but under the leadership of senior tri-captains Tom Antis, Jeff Cazeault, and Scott Mullin, the team posted an 8-10 record. Named to the Cape Cod All-Star team were seniors Jeff Cazeault, Mike Rogers, and Ben Smith, and junior Ed Wilcox. Other contributing seniors on this year's team were Andy Campbell, Marc Dorrer, Eric Johnson, Matt Lemay, Todd Nickerson, Mike Rogers, and Alex Schaefer. The team was coached by Harry Evans.

The volleyball team enjoyed another great season, compiling a 15-5 record in its first year as a member of the newly formed Old Colony League. This year's team graduates six seniors, five of whom played together since their freshman year. Senior tri-captain Alex Chasson was selected to the Old Colony League all-star team, the All-Cape Cod and the Islands all-star team, and led the team with 36 service aces. Patti Harrington, also a senior tri-captain, was selected to the Old Colony League all-star team, the All-Cape Cod and the Islands all-star team, and was awarded the Old Colony League's sportsmanship award. The other senior tri-captain, Stephanie Zarum, was also selected to the All-Cape and Island all-star team and led the team in assists. Senior Jenn McCarthy was a starting setter and an honorable mention on the Cape Cod and the Island all-star team. Mara McLaughlin, a senior defensive specialist, was also selected as an Honorable Mention to the Cape Cod and the Island all-star team. The final graduating senior, Heidi Schafer, who joined the team as a sophomore, starred for three years as a top utility player on the team.

Some of the highlights of the 1990 season included taking a second straight Cape Cod Classic Championship by nailing Notre Dame of Hingham 15-6, 15-12; sweeping rivals DY (15-0, 15-4 and 13-15, 15-7, 15-13); and being the only BHS fall team to make the MIAA tournament. Barnstable won a thrilling quarter-final match against Dighton-Rehoboth (11-15, 16-14, 13-15, 15-6, 15-8), before losing to eventual state champion Case, 4-15, 10-15, 15-9, 15-11, in the South Sectional Semifinal. The one Barnstable victory in that match against Case was one of only two games that the Cardinals lost all year.

This year's jump into the newly formed division one Old Colony League brought a surprisingly successful season to the Raider football team. Head Coach Paul Demanche along with coaches Bochman, Campbell, Carlton, and Titus helped the senior-dominated squad in their 7-2-1 campaign — a great improvement over last year's 5-5 division two record.

The offensive force, led by Cape and Islands all-stars John McCartin, Mark McWilliams, Jamie Chase, Kurt Welling, and Tony James along with specialist Jesse Caprio, scored 179 total points this season. Other offensive threats were quarterback Josh Conroy, tight end John Moreshead, wide receiver Sean Meehan, and offensive lineman Dave McAlpine, Jim Walsh, and Joel Benoit.

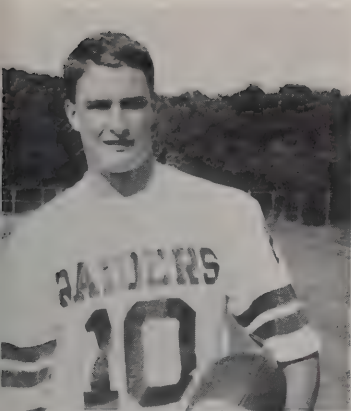

No team can do this well without an effective defense. This year's defense, built around Cape and Islands All-stars Sean Tracey and Ryan O'Neil, was the result of the combined efforts of linebackers Tom Bourgeois and Jason Dwyer, defensive back Jon Sackett, and defensive end Matt Pearson.

The 1991 season ended with a thrilling 29-7 victory in the 102nd meeting of the Barnstable Red Raiders and Falmouth Clippers on Thanksgiving Day. Later, at the annual football banquet, Jamie Chase received the honorable McGoldrick trophy — given to the Thanksgiving Day MVP.

The field hockey team, coached by Heather Rogorzen-ski, had a challenging season this fall. Posting a 3-6-1 Old Colony League record, the team lost seven of their 18 games 1-0. Senior co-captain and OCL All-Star Jill Jenkins led the team along with senior co-captain Sarah Bishopric. Seniors Beth Gadkowski, April Kallenberg, and Stacy Hadfield also played well for the Raiders.

The team's future looks bright led by returning OCL All-Star Heather McAlpine.

The boys and girls cross country teams, competing for the first time in the Old Colony League, posted 4-4 and 3-5 records respectively. The boys were led by OCL All Stars Jamie Glydon and Jon Way both of whom also qualified for the All-State meet. The boys defeated Silver Lake, Quincy, Taunton, and North Quincy while falling to Bridgewater-Raynham, Plymouth North, and league powerhouses Weymouth, and Falmouth. The boys also finished an impressive fourth in the Old Colony Conference Meet at Wampatuck State Park. The future looks bright with a strong crop of returning sophomores led by Way, Peter Buckler, Jay Wiseman, Danny Souza, and Chris Driscoll.

The girls in turn were led by senior OCL All-Star Carrie Klotz and Senior Laura Marrow. The girls enjoyed one of their most successful seasons in years, beating Quincy, Bridgewater-Raynham, and Plymouth North. Junior Kelly Glydon and freshman Erin Hoxie will return to lead the team next year.

The 1990 team's 8-9 record was the result of excellent team balance, according to coach Brendan Guttman. The team's record could easily have been as impressive as 15-2; the score in seven of their nine losses was 3-2.

Highlighting the 1990 season were two trips to state tournaments, one for the team and one for doubles partners and SMC All-Stars Marc Dorrer and Mark Robinson. The team swept Chatham 5-0, then fell to Nauset, 4-1, while Dorrer and Robinson made it to the semi-finals of the South Sectionals before losing their only contest of an exceptional year.

"This year, seniors Marc Dorrer, Mark Robinson, Alex Schaefer and junior Alex Kepnes will be fighting for singles positions," says Coach Guttman. Add senior Paul Adams to the mix and several strong doubles teams should emerge. "The team has good depth from number three singles through the doubles," Guttman adds.

Six returning letter winners from the 1990 season, the progress of the underclassmen, and the impact of new players on the team will decide the success of the 1991 team and season, predicts Coach Guttman.

Led by co-captains Allison Schiffman and Tracy Jenkins, this year's girls' basketball team entered a new and more challenging league. The senior players — Beth Gadkowski, Allison Schiffman, Tracy Jenkins, Sarah Bishopric, Stephanie Zarum, and Nancy DuMont — have all played together since the middle school. Their toughest games were against North Quincy and Brockton, Brockton beating them by a large margin in the first game. The second time around, however, BHS came within 15 points, showing Brockton what they were really made of. Their record reflects the many injuries and sicknesses of this year's teams, but also shows tremendous effort and personal achievements.

This year's team has had an outstanding season. They had, by January 28, won 13 out of 14 games overall and were undefeated in the Old Colony League. In its first year in a new league, the team hopes to win title and the state tournament.

The Raiders this year have been led by the senior players. Co-captains Ben Smith and Ryan O'Neil, along with Luke Murphy, Jeff Cazeault and Marc Dorrer spearhead a strong offense, aided by frosh surprise Eric Nickulas. The defense has been a wall of strength supported by Jamie Chase and Jason Dwyer and anchored by freshman goalie Mark Northup.

The Raiders have had great success this year and their many devoted fans will remember their spectacular play for a long time.

The boys basketball team finished with an overall record of 5-15 and 4-12 in their first season of Old Colony League play. Led by senior guard and OCL All-Star Josh Conroy, the team enjoyed a key victory over Plymouth, one of the best teams in the league who had beaten Barnstable early in the season.

Cocaptains Conroy and junior point guard Ed Wilcox manned the backcourt for the Raiders with junior Tom Antkowiak and Steve Camara starting at forward. Senior center Louis VamVakas played the middle for the Raiders. Junior forward Dave Henry also played well.

"We have only two graduating seniors, so the future looks good," says Conroy.

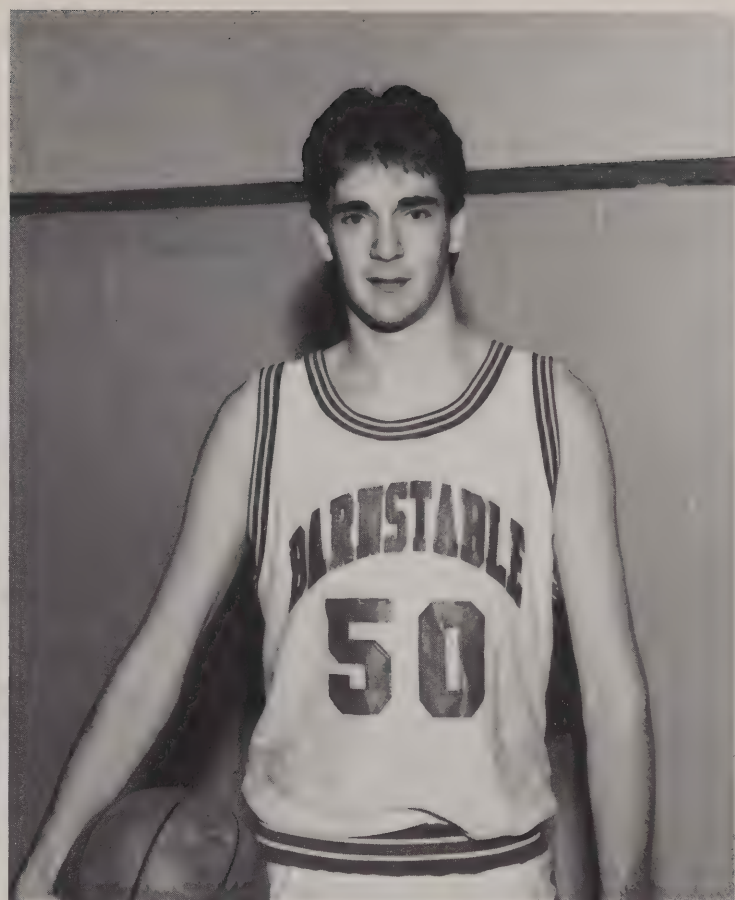

"Although the team's won/lost record may have been disappointing, the improvement throughout the year was significant," says Coach Sullivan. "Working with the members of this year's squad makes coaching very rewarding. I would like to thank the team for this, especially the two seniors, Josh and Louis."

The head coach, Jeff Proudler, and assistant coach Jen Byers, led the team with motivation and ambition. Although gymnastics is not a highly recognizable sport at BHS, the team's spirit and determination has kept the team alive. Tri-Captains Lauren Eck, Melissa Doyle and Kristen Pierce kept the team together with their experience and leadership. Seniors Melissa Doyle and Lauren Eck would like to wish the team the best of luck in the future. We will miss you!

The 1990 lacrosse season was one of excitement for the players as lacrosse was changed to a school sport. Though their record was just 5-10, the team established itself in its first year in the league against such competition as Weymouth North, Weymouth South and Hingham.

Returning to man the defense this year are seniors Chad Susong and Peter Owen and sophomore Matthew Bunnell. Midfielders include seniors Todd Nickerson, Scott Mullin and Mark McWilliams. The team's attack force, made up of seniors Tom O'Donnell, Ben Smith and John Kenney, should again be effective leading the offense. Under veteran coach Harry Evans, the team hopes to dominate its Old Colony League competition in 1991.

Seniors Jill Jenkins, Stephanie Zarum, Michelle Chevalier, Jill Spinney, Sarah Bishopric and Jenn McCarthy will return to lead the 1991 Raiders. The team hopes to improve on last year's 11-9 record and notch enough victories to qualify for state tournament action.

The 1990 baseball team qualified for the state tournament for the seventh consecutive year, routing Braintree 12-6 before being ousted in the quarter-finals by Dennis-Yarmouth 9-2. "We started slowly with a very inexperienced team and improved throughout the season," said Coach Dean Boger, whose club posted a 13-9 overall record.

The team looks to be even stronger in the 1991 season with nine returning seniors, led by SMC All-Star catcher John Moreshead. The team returns the entire infield, including first baseman Jason Dwyer, second baseman Sean Tracey, shortstop Josh Conroy (all seniors), and Moreshead, as well as junior third baseman Jason Michonski. Pitchers John McCartin and Tom Antis, with assistance from Dwyer and junior reliever Dave Henry, will man the mound. Senior Ryan O'Neil will play outfield and see occasional infield action. Seniors Eli Lott (outfield) and Chad Scrupps (infield) will also see some action.

"Since we have the whole infield returning, our defense should be strong," says Dwyer, adding that "the season will depend on how well we do at the plate."

Moreshead agrees. "I am very excited about this year. The team wants to make a great impression in this new league. If we hit the ball well and play up to our potential on defense, we can go all the way."

McCartin adds, "I believe that with the athletes we have on the team, only we can control our destiny. If we play the way we can, we will be a very hard team to contend with."

Summing up the team's prospects for the 1991 season, Coach Boger says, "I expect, with some luck, we will have a very successful season."

Girls Tennis

The BHS girls tennis team is coming off an excellent 1990 season (20-2) in which they reached the South Sectional finals of the state tournament. There they lost to eventual state champion Bishop Feehan; ironically, Feehan's only two regular season losses were to the SMC-1 champion Raiders. According to coach Wayne Miles, a nucleus of strong players is returning for the 1991 season. Senior doubles players Melissa Scanlon and Alex Chasson will return to lead the team with senior Meghan Kilroy, who could play anywhere between first singles and first doubles. Senior Christa Zevitas and junior SMC All-Star Kelly Bryan are also returning. "If all our players return and the same team effort and unity are present, we could have a similarly outstanding season," says Coach Miles.

The 1990-91 Winter Track teams, despite posting identical 1-6 records in their first year in the Old Colony League, were led by a good group of seniors. Senior Jamie Glydon led the distance runners with the help of sophomores Colin Kelley and Jay Wiseman and junior Matt Crowley. Senior Peter Palcic ran the 600 yards and threw the shot. Senior Tony James, in his first season of track, performed well as did junior high jumper Jay Boyne.

Senior Carrie Klotz led the distance runners with help from sophomore Meredith Eagar. Junior Kelly Glydon high jumped well and freshmen Robyn Michonski and Jen Rothwell ran well in the 50 yards. With many underclassmen returning, the team hopes to do well in the future.

Girls Spring Track

The 1991 girls spring track team returns a strong crop of seniors led by two-time SMC All-Star Beth Gadkowski, who runs the 400 meters as well as participating in the long and triple jumps. Former SMC All-Star Carrie Klotz will run the mile and two-mile aided by seniors Sara Wetmore, Sarah Ellis and Stacy McDonald. Leading the throwers are seniors Wendy LeJava (javelin, discus), Suzanne White (discus), Kathleen Lees (discus), and Kelly Carney (discus, shotput). State-class qualifier Erika Swanson (hurdles, sprints, jumps) and senior Amy Wong (sprints, jumps) are also returning along with senior sprinter Laura Marrow.

"With the amount of senior talent we have, as well as the excellent ability of the younger kids, we should have a very good season," says head coach Rick Linehan, adding that he is excited about entering the Old Colony League. He also admits that he'll miss this year's seniors even more than he misses his long-lost collection of Stubby Kaye jelly glasses.

Success.

It's serious business.

It must be measured in the quality of work and the quality of life as well.

It is rarely accidental and never accomplished without great effort. It starts with a good idea, but is ultimately achieved through the hard work of determined people striving toward a common goal.

We at Software 2000

salute the Class of 1991.

are pleased to congratulate each of you on your graduation

Melissa:

From that first hesitant step onto the school bus to the confident strides of a senior . . . how did it happen so fast? You've worked so hard. You've made it happen! We're very proud of what you've accomplished and the person you've become.

Many thanks to those who've helped you along the way. Some know they're forever special.

Thanks for always making us a part of everything. We've had such fun.

Love,

Mom and Dad

"Hey Big Sister"

To Our Precious Daughter Holly . . .

May you always be inspired

To Stand Tall in the sunlight.

To seek out

the bright face of beauty

To reach for the dream, the star,

to see the world

through eyes of tenderness

To love with open-heartedness

To speak the quiet word of comforting,

To look up the mountain and not be afraid to climb . . .

To be aware of the needs of others,

To believe in the wonder of life,

the miracle of Creation,

the rapture of Love,

the beauty of the Universe,

the dignity of the human being.

Thanks, Holly For All the Joy and Laughter

Yearbook Staff

Danielle,

You are a special person, formed by the hands of God and given in trust to us. Try to live by a loving and giving heart — keeping God as your closest companion. Follow these feelings and you'll always be free, happy and secure. I love You, more than I ever could say . . . and will forever and ever after.

Love,

Mom, Dad, and John
